2009 NECC Volleyball Championship At Daniel Webster College

Welcome to the 2009 New England Collegiate Conference Women's Volleyball Championship hosted by Daniel Webster College! This weekend's action features the top four finishers from the regular season. First and second-seeded Daniel Webster and Newbury earned first round byes, while third and fourth seeds Lesley and Elms won their quarterfinal matchups this past Wednesday night.

Under the guidance of second year Head Coach Braden Zamore, host and top seed DANIEL WEBSTER is again enjoying its best season in program history, having tied records for wins in a season (14), notched the most wins in a conference (7), and won their second straight regular season crown - this one outright after sharing the title last season with Lesley ... The squad went 8-1 over their final nine matches ... Still one of the youngest teams in the league, the Eagles sport just one senior and two juniors and have regularly started three freshmen ... Leading the charge is two-time NECC Player of the Week Kristina Rieger and five-time Rookie of the Week Chelsey Crawford ... Rieger leads the squad with 1.21 aces per outing (81 total), and is third in kills (1.66) and second in digs (2.16) ... Crawford has been the NECC's top offensive player through the season with a league best .328 hitting percentage and 2.55 kills per game. Crawford is also the Eagles top net presence with 48 total blocks ... One-time NECC Rookie of the Week Sam Hill has had a fine freshman campaign, averaging 1.67 kills per game and is hitting .185 overall and has added 45 aces ... Catherine Ferraro is the team's libero with 3.04 digs per game ... Caitlyn DiPierro is the setter with a 6.03 assists average.

Third year coach Jamie Terenzi has performed a remarkable turnaround with second-seeded NEWBURY ... The Nighthawks struggled to a 3-27 overall record last season (2-5 NECC) but have improved remarkably to 12-19 this season and finished 5-2 in league play, good for second place closing the season strong by winning three of their final four ... One-time NECC Rookie of the Week Sara Hanna leads the team with 2.15 k/pg and is hitting .111 overall, while one-time NECC Player of the Week Tricia Correveau adds 1.66 k/pg and also hits .111 ... Stephanie Williams (1.18 kpg) leads the team hitting .187 and total blocks (58) ... Regina Sibilia is the team's primary setter averaging 2.96 assists ... Sarah Nelson is tops at the line with 67 aces while Jesse Urry adds 2.65 digs.

Third-seeded and defending tournament champion LESLEY posted a sweep of Becker in the quarterfinals behind 10 kills from Lindsey Marek and seven from Megan Ortwein while Amanda McCracken had four blocks ... After a 4-11 start, third year head coach Elizabeth Morris' Lynx come into the final four winners of 10 of their final 11 with their only loss coming to Daniel Webster ... Marek is second in team hitting (.244) and is tops in kills per game (2.28), and total blocks (44) ... McCracken, a one-time NECC Player and Rookie of the Week, is hitting a team best .290 with 2.23 kills per game ... Kaitlyn Miller, another former Rookie of the Week winner, sports 6.39 assists per game and a team best 58 total aces.

Second year coach Sheila Gisbrecht's fourth-seeded ELMS club earned its way into the final four with a 3-1 win over Mitchell in the quarterfinals. Christina Martin's 12 kills led a 50-kill team attack on the night ... One-time NECC Players of the Week Jen Rego and Stacy Croteau added nine each ... Winners of six of their final seven, the Blazer's only loss in that stretch was to Lesley ... Croteau leads the squad with 2.20 kills per game and 58 total aces ... Kim Phillips, another NECC Player of the Week winner, sports a .124 hitting percentage and her 3.7 assists tops the squad ... Melissa Clark (67 blocks) adds 1.35 kills and Christina Martin is averaging 1.26 kills.
